ALL SAINT'S DAY-NOVEMBER 1ST .-This festival takes its origin from the conversion, in the seventh century, of the Pantheon, at Rome, into a Christian place of worship, and its dedication by Pope Boxi-FACE IV, to the Virgin and all the martyrs. The anniversary of this event was at first celebrated on the 13th of May, but the day was subsequently altered to the 1st of November, which was thenceforth, under the designation of the Feast of All Saints, set apart as a general commencemoration in their honor. The festival has been retained by the

TO THE CITY COUNCIL OF NASHVILLE: GENTLEMEN: Notwithstanding the regular annual report which you have had before you at the commencement of the term, your Finance Committee, owing to our present embarrassed condition, deem it necessary to again remind you that some action should be at once adopted that will reduce, if not altogether put a stop to the continued drafts on our already depleted treasury. While your Committee are aware of the feeling (as AMANDA BURNS-were well enough to be expressed by nearly every member of the City Council) to cut down our expenditures, they think that too much time is passing without any comparative action.

It is not difficult to see how much more all who drank of the preparation were imreputable it is to retrench than go on mediately seized with the symptoms of making contracts when we have no means to meet their payment. We believe that all that has been done during the last year was | was that while in the store where she purally suspired to meet the wants of the city chased the sugar, he asked her for a lump, dorsed by the late election.

And here, also, your committee would commend that the Chairman of the Street committee be vested with authority to, at nce, sell the steamboat Nannie, (as she will bring as much now as at any other in the New York market, can be found at ime,) and to make contracts hereafter for TOTTEN'S, Nos. 21 and 23 College street, such materials, of any kind, as she may now be engaged in delivering. Nashville.

Finally, to meet the desired ends, you committee would respectfully urge upor the chairman of the different committees whose departments are an expense to the orporation, the necessity of having them mediately called together, in separate dies, and examining into and lopping of where possible, in every department, seeing dso, that no expenditure be entered upon
